

Rules for Recall.

- Never call your dog unless you are 100% sure it will come.
- Never get mad at your dog if he blows you off.
- Always have something to reward your dog with for coming back.
- If you doubt your dog will come when you call him then just go and get him.
- Never punish your dog for coming back to you even if it takes 5mins. If he did something wrong that needs correcting, then go get him.
- Don't only recall your dog at the end of the walk or play session then go home.
- If you are going back to the car walk your dog on lead back to the car and give a few rewards when you get back to the car.
- Practice recall in the house, back garden, front garden and everywhere in between.
- Practice, Practice, Practice, Practice.
- Don't let your dog off lead until your recall is at-least 95% trained and you can call your dog away from most distraction.
